Dedication

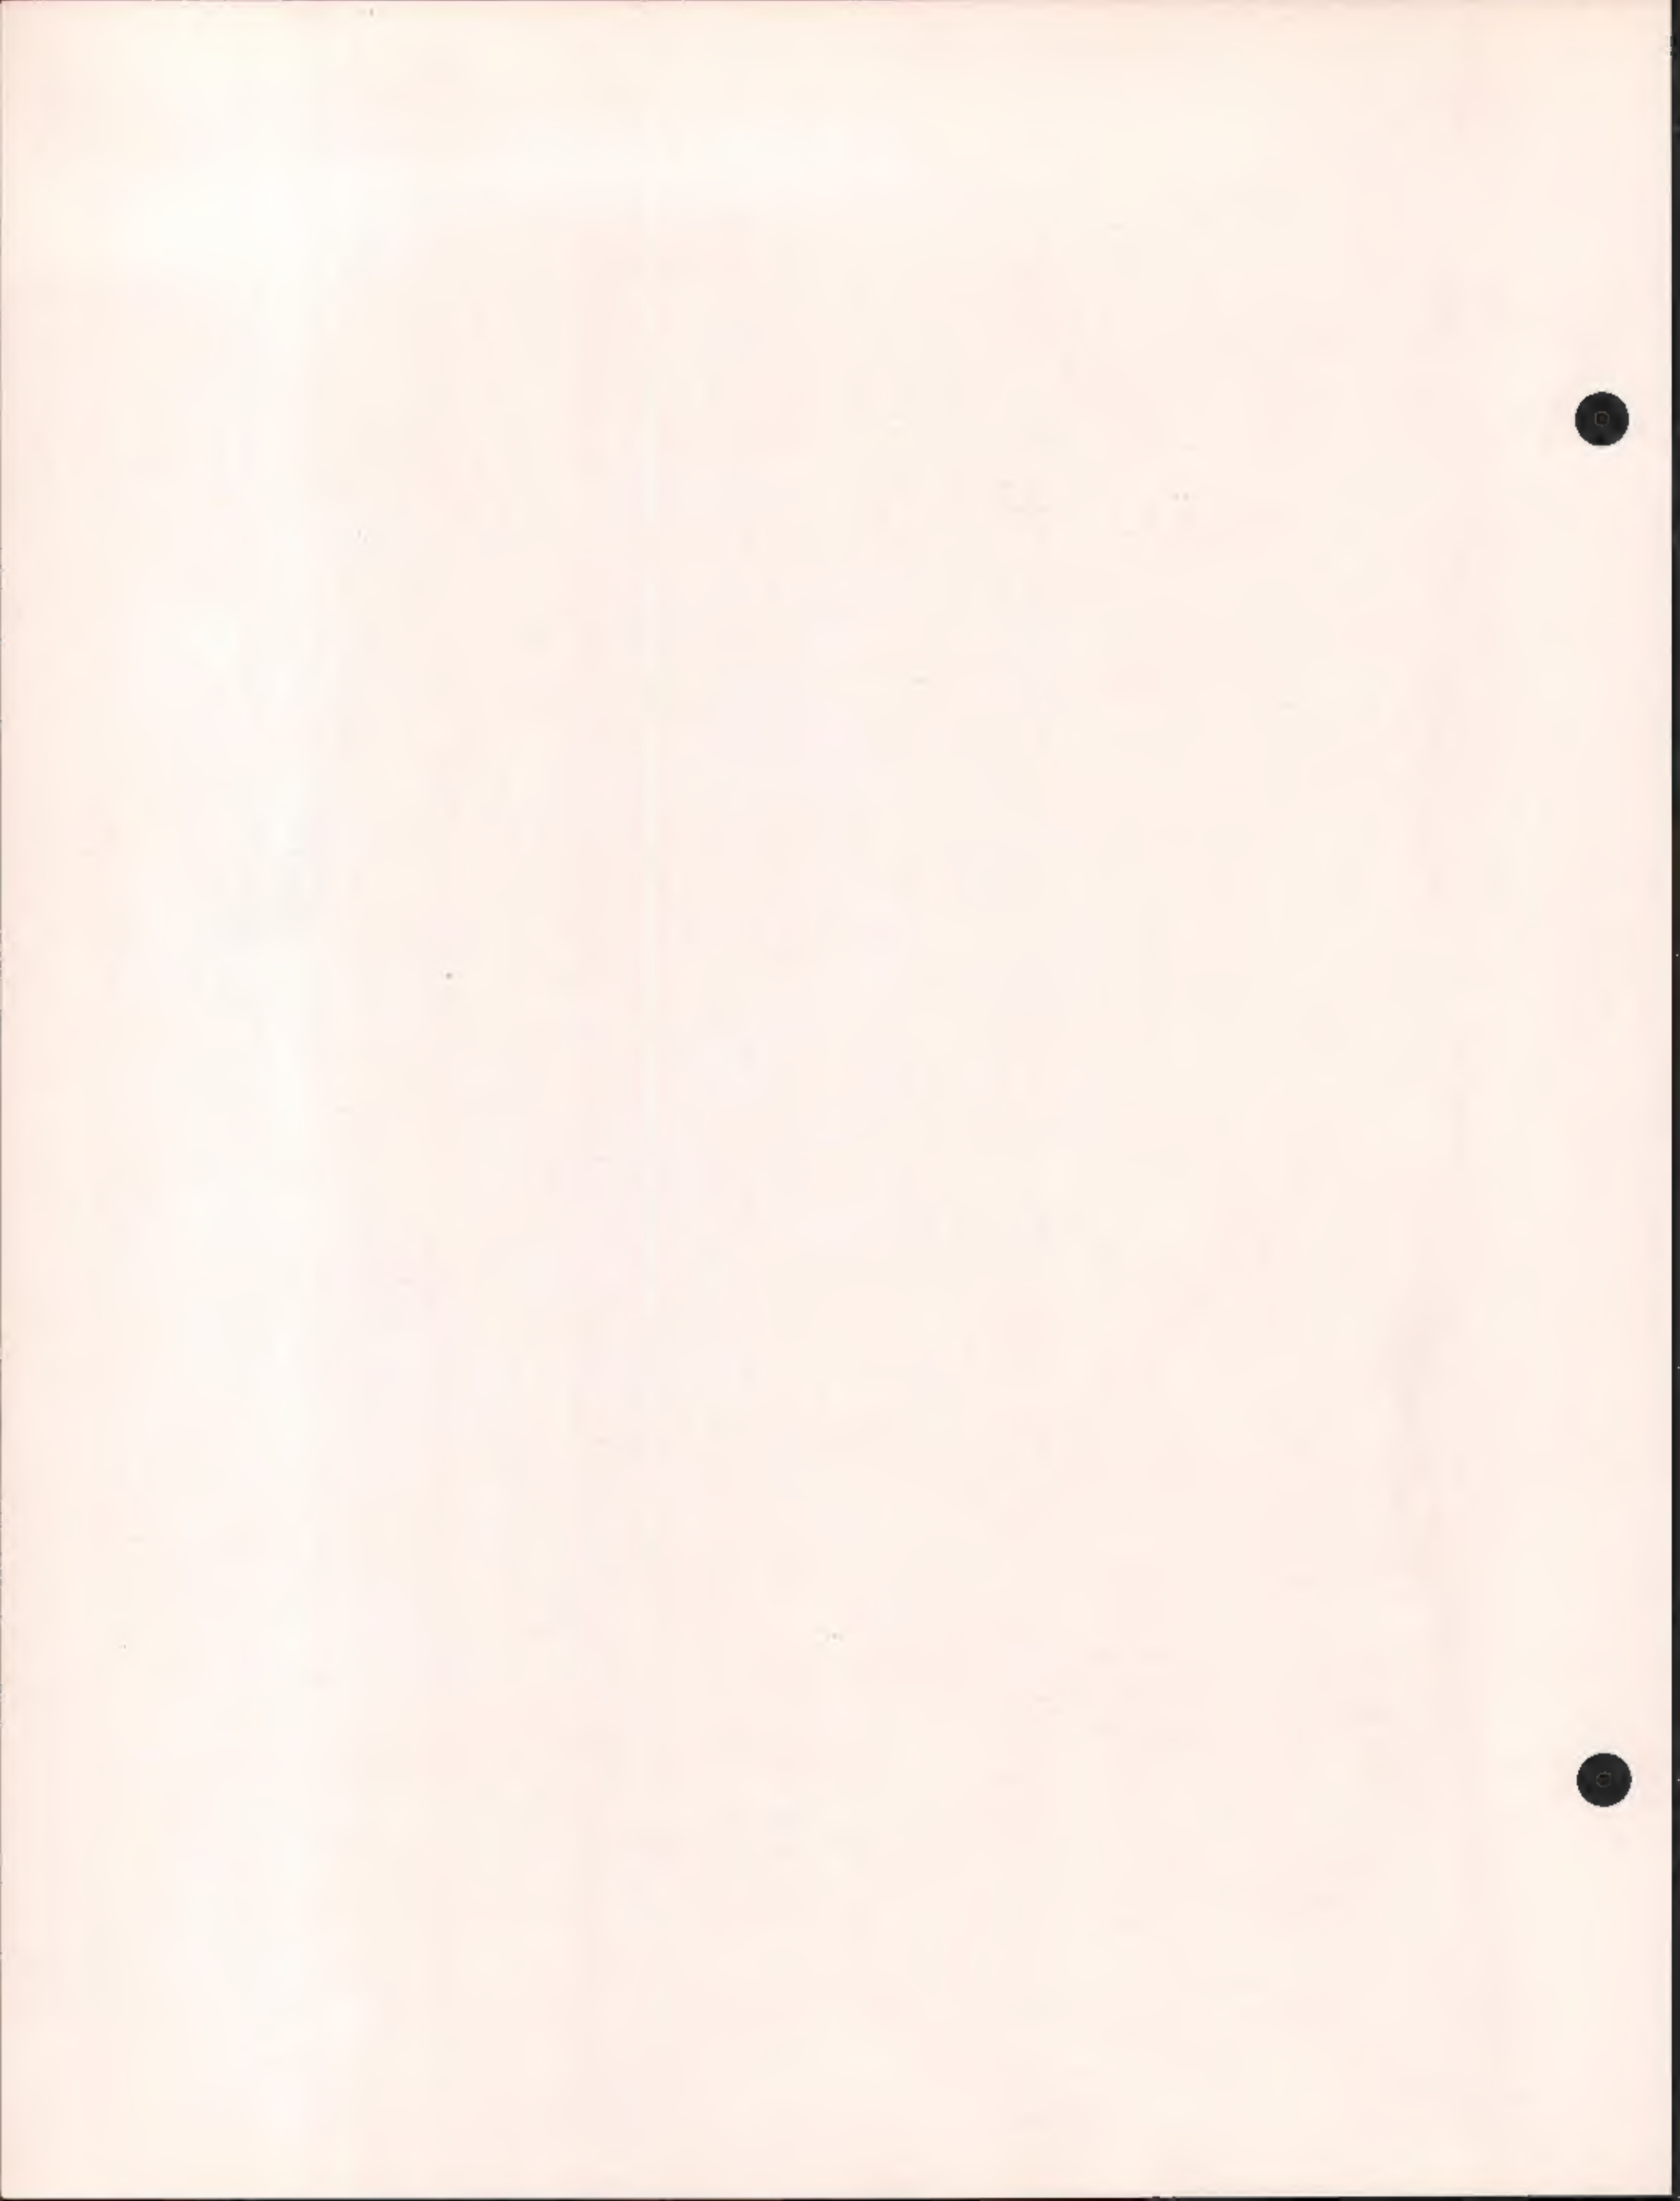

To Superintendent M. Aarthun, who has so faithfully served our school as superintendent, we respectfully dedicate this annual. Since coming to our school, he has given unsparingly of his time and talents to further the interests of the students, faculty, and the school as a whole. Our school has clearly felt the touch of his energetic hand and his interest in our school has served as a stimulation to all who have come in contact with him.

Senior Class History

Four years ago eleven green freshmen smartly walked up four flights of stairs into the assembly of good old Grenora High School. After being initiated, like all freshmen are, we entered into the various activities of the school.

The officers that year were: Pres.-Leo Astrup; Vice Pres.-Darlene Swanson; Sec.-Treas.-Archie Price; and Student Council Rep.-Donna Mae Richardson. Our class advisor was Mrs. Cox.

In the fall of 1945, we discovered the absence of two of our classmates-Alice and Albin Wahlgren who moved to Fergus Falls, Minnesota.

That year officers were: Pres.-Billy Musgjerd; Vice Pres.-Leo Astrup; Sec.-Treas.-Edwin Quarne; and Student Council Rep.-Penny La-Flame. Class advisor was Mr. Dietrich.

In our junior year Darlene Swanson left our class to go to Williston. Ra Mona Negaard, Zahl, Ruby Nelson, Zahl, and Eunice Tangen joined our class. Eunice Tangen did not complete the year.

The officers that year were: Pres.-Penny La Flame; Vice Pres.-Morris Storseth; Sec.-Treas.-Ra Mona Negaard; and Student Council Rep.-Donna Mae Richardson. Class advisor was Mrs. Dravland.

The events of our junior year were the class play, "Good Gracious Grandma," which was very successful, and the Junior Senior banquet and prom.

When we began our senior year, we had an enrollment of ten. This year Ra Mona Negaard and Eunice Tangen left us but Darlene Swanson returned to finish high school at Grenora. During the school year Edwin Quarne transferred to school in Arizona and later returned to finish the year here. This year we put out the school paper, "Grenora Gopher," and the ninth edition of the yearbook.

The officers elected this year were: Pres.-Allen Skabo; Vice Pres.-Donna Mae Richardson; Sec.-Treas.-Darlene Swanson; and Student Council Rep.-Leo Astrup.

As we seniors leave the halls of Grenora High School, We leave our best wishes to all those who may follow in the years to come.

Junior History

L. to R.: Gayle Clemetson, Sec.-Treas.; Arvin Hagen, Pres.; Jo Anne Hagge, Vice Pres.

On September 13, 1949, twenty-one freshmen entered the halls of Grenora High School. Not long after school began, the girls came to school in gunny sacks or overalls, and the boys in night shirts or gym suits. This was our initiation! Later in the year we gave our Freshmen return party. Everyone seemed to have a good time. We elected as our class officers: Pres. Colleen Anderson, Vice Pres. Lorraine Berg, Sec.-Treas. Shirley Isaacson, and Student Council Rep. Una Mae Astrup. Our Class Advisor was Mr. Urness.

When we returned in our Sophomore year, three familiar faces were missing. They were Danny Weer, Darlene Norvald, and Larry Swanson. During the year Clarence Ross, Shirley Isaacson, and Ardella Larson dropped out of the Sophomore Class.

The class of '53 goes down in Grenora High School History as being the first sophomore class that didn't initiate the freshmen. Our sophomore class officers were: Pres. Marylyn Quarne, Vice Pres. Lorraine Eliassen, Sec. Treas. Ruth Molvik, Student Council Rep. Franklyn Oyen. Our Class Advisor was Mr. Urness. We gained some members from the Zahl School. They were: Franklyn Oyen, JoAnne Hagge, Andrew Rassier, and Eugene Peterson who later dropped out.

Our Junior year began September 5, 1951. This year we are upper classmen and we really feel quite important. We have one new member, Jean Mehus. We presented the play, "Here Come the Brides," with Miss Gillmer as the director. This was to help defray the expenses of the banquet and prom. The officers elected this year were: Pres. Arvin Hagen, Vice Pres. Jo Anne Hagge, Sec.-Treas. Gayle Clemetson, and Student Council Rep. Marylyn Quarne. Our Class Advisors are Mrs. Dravland and Miss Gillmer.

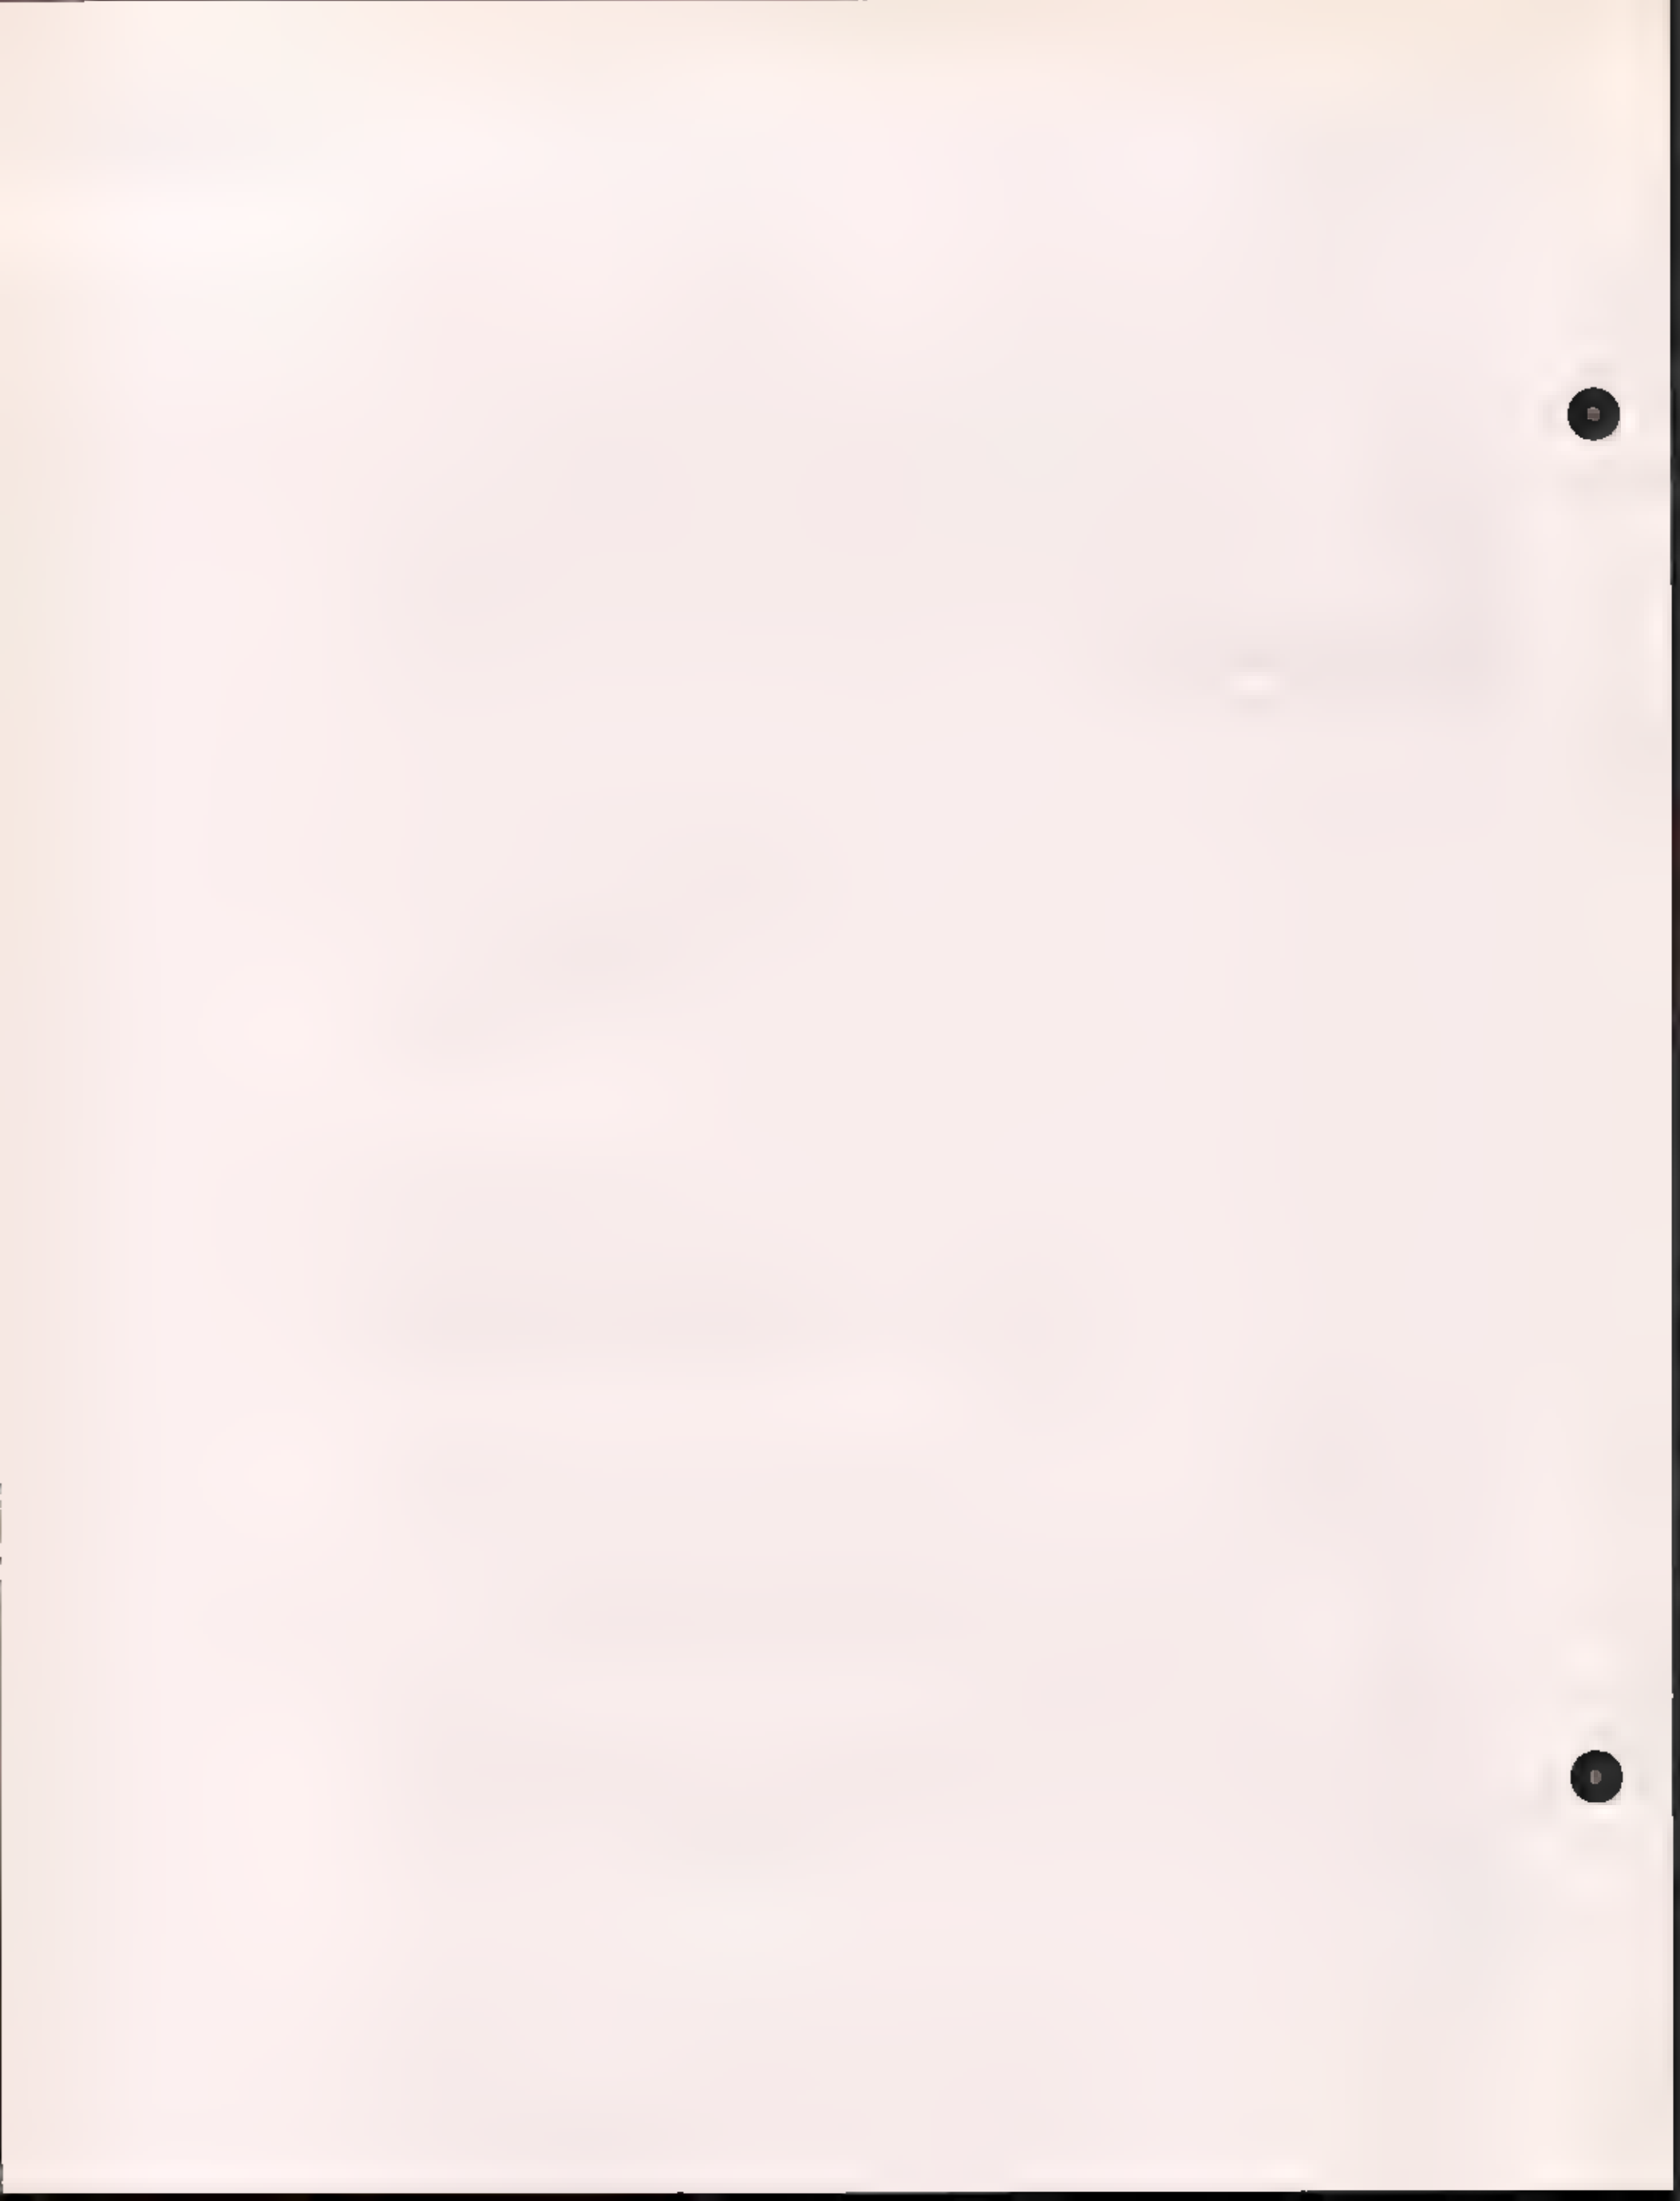

In our three years we have lost eight members and gained three. We are now a class of 19. We look forward to the day when we will take up where the honorable Seniors have left off, and we can covet the honored title of "Senior!"
